

Can't find the job you want? Find out...

WHERE THE JOBS ARE

According to local labour market statistics and feedback from employers, the sectors where you're likely to find a job are the following:

- ❖ Retail
- ❖ Hospitality, Food & Drink
- ❖ Health & Social Care
- ❖ Business & Contact Centres
- ❖ Warehousing & Logistics

If you're keen to find a job, why not try a new approach in your job search?

- ❖ Think out of the box, there is more than one job you can be good at.
- ❖ Consider your key strengths, transferable skills and interests. Be creative!
- ❖ Be realistic and flexible, find a starting point. Working part-time can often lead to full-time employment.
- ❖ Get some training if you can.
- ❖ Work closely with your advisor and remember your local Multi-Access Centre (MAC).
- ❖ Volunteering can open the door to a new career.

"Research, research, research, & ask for advice. Jobs are out there, but you will have to go and find them." (Helen)

"This isn't what I expected to be doing, but I love it now." (Asif)
